

DAILY SENTINEL

SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1903

THE DAILY SENTINEL is published every day except on Sundays and public holidays. It is published at the corner of Madison and Washington streets, Indianapolis, Ind. The price is five cents per copy. Subscriptions are received at the office of the publisher, or by mail, in advance. The office is open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. The paper is delivered by carriers in the city and by mail elsewhere. The paper is published for the owners by the Indianapolis Sentinel Co., 100 Madison street, Indianapolis, Ind.

SPEECHES OF Hendricks and Voorhees.

The speech of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, before the Democratic Convention on the 14th of January, 1902, and the speech of Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, in the House of Representatives, February 25, 1902, are published in this issue, published in a pamphlet of sixteen pages, including both speeches. Each one is among the ablest delivered on the present crisis, and should be placed in the hands of every voter in the State.

The first issue having been entirely exhausted, we are now reprinting a large edition to supply the increasing demand.

Those living off express routes must provide for prepaying the postage, which is one cent per copy. Price 25¢ per hundred. All orders promptly filled.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

Fashionable hats and caps are found at Spencers, 32 West Washington street.

For religious miscellany, see the first page of this paper daily.

Last night fifty sick soldiers were passed to their homes by the Adjutant General's office.

Our nebular atmosphere was made at the Pantheon.

Wide awake folks are referred to the advertisement of dwarf trees and evergreens.

The Pantheon is on Pennsylvania street, East Building.

For durable hats go to Spencers, 32 West Washington street.

Steel pens—See Bowen, Stewart & Co's advertisement in this morning's paper.

May Magazines—Harper, Astor, Goddard and Knickerbocker at Bowen, Stewart & Co's.

Bowen, Stewart & Co. and Merrill & Co. have the Atlantic Monthly for May.

The City Council meets to-night for the last time in Old Fellows' building.

If you want to buy low, buy at 32 West Washington street.

Theatrical—Felix A. Vincent and Miss Marion MacCarthy are delighting the patrons of the drama at Fay Wayne.

Major Wright, an old and well known citizen, expired at his residence on Pennsylvania street, yesterday morning.

Deaths of Indiana Soldiers During the War—William Indiana, H. 534. Patrick O'Brien, Co. E, 6th.

Mad dogs have made their appearance at Laporte, in this State, and the result has been a general slaughter of the canines of that flourishing city.

The promise for abundant fruit crops was never more flattering at this time in spring.

Our exchanges from all parts of the country speak of unexampled abundance in buds and blossoms.

Mitigated Treasury Notes—The public should be very careful in receiving mutilated treasury notes, as the Secretary of the Treasury refuses to redeem them at their face.

Yesterday seventeen privates and non-commissioned officers, belonging to Indiana regiments and corps, were furnished with transportation to their companies.

Glenns' Black Shoe Store is becoming a popular place, judging from the crowds that are daily seen "packing" away boots and shoes. The fact is Cady & Co. keep what the people want and sell at the very lowest prices, wholly for cash. Try them.

A Texan rapper's lance, about eight feet long, with a blade of fifteen inches, captured at the conclusion of Shiloh, may be seen among the curiosities the State Librarian daily exhibits to admiring throngs.

We know of no better place to purchase a good pair of loafers or shoes than at the City Shoe Store. The stock of Mayhew & Co. is very full and complete, prices extremely low, and the clerks always on hand to try and please their customers.

Saturday's Trade—Shoe customers can supply themselves at Jones, Vineland & Co's Shoe House with all the latest styles. Ladies' milners, gents', boys', youths', and children's shoes, all styles and qualities, cheap.

We are informed by Dr. Johnson, the Camp Surgeon, that the health of the rebel prisoners at Camp Morton is improving. There is very little sickness among those confined there, and no disease of a malignant type.

We find the following in the Baltimore Sun, which we have omitted to note in our Milwaukee exchange:

Sherman M. Booth, the Abolitionist, was treated to a shower of unmercantable eggs while speaking at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, recently.

Unattractive Negro Preacher—A colored preacher discoursing in a chapel on Sunday on the passage of the bill abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia, stopped in the midst of his discourse and exclaimed "Glory to God!" whereupon a brother in the body of the church responded, "Glory to Lovejoy!" The minister said, "No, God was on my side, but the minister Lovejoy will no doubt feel slighted."

Funerary of Marshal Loucks—Yesterday the remains of Marshal Loucks were followed to the grave by a lengthy procession of citizens. The Old Fellows, of course, Order Mr. Loucks was a member, the police force and the chief officials of the municipality, as well as others, testified their respect for the deceased by the last sad rites to his memory.

A Big Stock—M. H. Good is just receiving and opening one of the largest and choicest stock of goods ever brought to this city adapted to the spring and summer trade. The rapidly increasing business of this establishment is the best evidence that its proprietor understands the wants of the community and how to buy to advantage so as to sell cheap.

Examine the extensive assortment of both useful and ornamental goods that Mr. Good offers at very low prices.

Col. Nat. Lord—We find the following complimentary notice of Col. Lord, of Lawrenceburg, and brother of the President of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati railroad, in the New York World.

Col. Nathan Lord, of the Vermont 6th, which so greatly distinguished itself, with the other Vermont regiments, in the late affair at Yorktown, as a son of President Lord of Dartmouth College. Col. Lord led his regiment with great intrepidity; he had his clothing pierced by several bullets without being killed. His first laurels were won in Western Virginia, as a Captain in an Indiana regiment, when Gen. McClellan there had command.

The Ohio correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, writing on the 24th of April 24th, says:

From Pittsburgh I have intelligence of a skirmish with the enemy, in which Gen. McGregor with 5,000 cavalry and a portion of the recent reinforcements sent up the Tennessee participated. About one mile from our pickets they came in contact with the rebel pickets, drove them in and encountered a strong force of rebel cavalry which they engaged. After fighting briskly for an hour both sides retired with considerable loss. It was on Wednesday night that the fighting occurred, and the main body of the army is now moving the main body of the army.

VERMIN EXTERMINATOR.

THESE PREPARATIONS (unlike all others) are "FROST POISONS." "Not dangerous to the Human Family." "Rats do not die on the premises." "They come out of their holes to die." "They are the only infallible remedies known." "12 years and more established in New York City."

See one or two specimens of what is everywhere said by the People—Editors—

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin need no so longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5 we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but "Costar's" article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice, Roaches and Bed-Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.

Medicine Co. of New York.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed annually in Grant County by vermin than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer—Lancaster [W.] Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR—We are selling your preparations rapidly. Wherever they have been used, Rats, Mice, Roaches and Vermin disappear rapidly.

ECKER & STOFFER, Druggists, Windsor, Md.

FROM GEN. BURNSIDE'S EXPEDITION.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The Times' dispatch says:

A gentleman arrived here to-day directly from Gen. McClellan's headquarters, and reports our forces have greatly the advantage of the enemy, as time will show. That our sharpshooters are the terror of the rebel gunners. Our approaches command the rebel entrenchments; everything is working as well as the most sanguine could ask.

On Monday last there was a long and hard fought battle between the two armies, right in the rear of the works. It continued so long that it was mistaken for a regular battle, and the long roll was called. The Virginians now being forced into the service at the point of the bayonet resist as far as they can.

Information was received in our headquarters at Yorktown that the rebels were concentrating a large force at Gordonsville, hoping to beat Gen. Burnside's army, and to cut off the railroad. McDowell is going across the Rappahannock and to precipitate a superior force upon him.

The Richmond Examiner of the 22d says:

Official dispatches received yesterday, state that the rebel army is still in the rear of the works. The rebels are still in the rear of the works. The rebels are still in the rear of the works.

The Senate, in executive session to-day, confirmed the nomination of Horatio King, Ex-Postmaster General, as one of the Commissioners under the act for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. The Board was to organize immediately.

The President to-day nominated Col. Tuttle, of the 1st Iowa, for Brigadier General of volunteers.

Hatchings resolutions censuring Mr. Vallandigham for alleged violation of the rules and decorum of the House, by making use of the denunciatory language against Senator Wade after having been called to order by the Speaker, will come to-morrow for general action.

The participants in the colloquy, Messrs. Vallandigham and Blake, exhibited intense earnestness; the scene for a while was exceedingly spirited, but it was terminated by adjournment.

The Yankee has arrived from the neighborhood of Fredericksburg and reports that one day this week the Annapolis, while passing Lorton's Point, on the Rappahannock, was fired into by a rebel gunboat, and the vessel was disabled.

The flotilla is still actively engaged in seizing rebel craft. It has captured sixteen schooners.

The ratifications of the Seward-Lyon treaty for the purchase of the Alaska territory will soon be exchanged. The main points are a mutual right of search without regard to the number of vessels employed and the summary trial and punishment of those engaged in the illegal traffic.

From New York.

New York, April 14.—The steamer Evaline from Nassau arrived to-night, bringing passengers from the steam ship Karnak, lost in Nassau harbor on the 14th inst., by grounding in full sight of the wharf. The man and passengers were saved, and most of her cargo.

The Kva line was chartered by the passengers, who could obtain no transportation through the secession agents of Nassau.

The rebel steamer Nashville, now called the Thomas L. Wrag, had returned to Nassau from an unsuccessful attempt to run the blockade at Charleston; one of her paddle houses is badly injured, it is supposed by a cannon ball. She has a full cargo of ammunition and guns, brought by the Gladiator from England.

The steamer Ella Warly, with potash and saltpetre, was soon to sail for some southern port. The steamer Cecil had arrived at Nassau from Charleston. Several rebel vessels are expected to be at Nassau.

New York, April 25.—Lieutenant Governor Keener of Illinois has been designated to the post of Minister to Spain, in place of Carl Schurz, provided the latter intends to return.

Southern News.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The Tribune's special says:

An officer from Corinth, according to the Atlanta Confederacy, reports that the Confederate line extended over the Corinth battle ground, and that the Unionists are being made by both armies for the grand decisive battle at Shiloh. Beauregard is being heavily reinforced. Skirmishes daily occur between the advance guards.

Merchandise and other property at retail and wholesale a tax of one per cent, yielding, our memorialists believe, the annual sum of $115,000,000; from the tariff the sum of fifty million; from an excise or tax on cotton of 2 cents per pound, twenty-four million; from an excise or tax on tobacco of 20 cents per lb thirty million; from an excise or tax on whisky and other liquors of 25 cents per gallon twenty-five million; from an excise or tax on liquor of 6 cents per gallon eight million; from a direct tax on real and personal property twelve million; two hundred and sixty-four million.

Com. Foote, owing to the wound received in the battle of Fort Henry, has asked to be relieved from the command of the Western fleet, but the Department hesitates. It is understood that the Department has ordered Capt. C. H. Davis to repair to the squadron as his second in command, and to receive him of much physical labor of his responsible position.

In addition to what has heretofore been stated in contradiction of the false statements of the Richmond papers, there is good authority for stating that Commodore M. M. French, Minister to the United States at London, had no official communication whatever with the Southern authorities.

The report that Lord Lyons has gone to Richmond or is going to Richmond as an unauthorized member of the cabinet is entirely unfounded. The report that Lord Lyons has gone to Richmond or is going to Richmond as an unauthorized member of the cabinet is entirely unfounded.

The Navy Department is quietly though efficiently at work increasing the means of the national defense.

The Atlanta Iron Works and Harrison Loring, of Boston, have been awarded contracts for building iron clad vessels under the recent law.

The Senate to-day in Executive session confirmed the nomination of George Cadwallader of Pennsylvania, and George H. Thomas of Virginia, as Major Generals, and Col. A. H. Terry of Connecticut, M. S. Hascall, of Indiana, Maj. H. W. Wessels, of the 6th infantry, Col. J. W. Geary and L. F. Ross of Indiana, as Brigadier Generals.

The Senate, it is said, rejected Nathan Reeve as Assistant Quartermaster, and the following as Brigadier Generals: John Cochrane, H. H. Lockwood, C. F. Clark and Charles Dana.

John Trumbull, of Tennessee, was confirmed as United States Attorney for the middle district of that State.

The President to-day recommended Daniel E. Sickles to be a Brigadier General. The prospect of his confirmation is favorable.

Tennessee News.

CHICAGO, April 25.—A special to the Times from Chicago says:

Passengers by the Belle Memphis say that at Savannah heavy firing was heard in the direction of Pittsburg. The cannonading was brisk and gradually grew louder, being heard for miles this side of Savannah.

The belief that a general engagement was brought on was strengthened by the fact that on Wednesday significant preparations were made by Halleck for an attack.

Our gunboats on the Tennessee had effected a passage over Mobile shoals and penetrated as far as Huntsville, Alabama, where they captured a quantity of rebel commissary stores.

A special to the Tribune says:

The rumors that the fight had commenced at Pittsburg is dispelled at headquarters. Gen. Strong received dispatches from Halleck yesterday, but no mention is made of the affair.

Steamer Sank.

GALLIPOLI, O., April 25.—The Government steamer Eugene, on her way to Cincinnati, sank last night off Ashland, Ky. She was commanded by Capt. Thomas Murdoch, of Cincinnati.
